

Dialogue and type action:

"YOU'VE SEEN A SHIP WITH BLACK SAILS..."
- the first few words slide in from the bottom, bouncing slightly before settling into place, then 'BLACK SAILS' fades in and waves back and forth as if in the wind.

Dialogue and type action:

"THAT'S CREWED BY THE DAMNED" - we zoom in on the 'L' from the previous frame, and 'that's crewed by the' slides in from the upper right corner and settles on the bottom of the 'L'. Then 'damned' drops in from above

Dialogue and type action:

"AND CAPTAINED BY A MAN SO EVIL" - we move upwards as 'captained' is drawn in in fancy cursive and the remaining words stack on top of it. 'So' is drawn out and 'evil' is scrawled on to accentuate the audio.

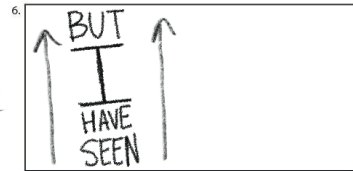

Dialogue and type action:

"THAT HELL ITSELF SPAT HIM BACK OUT?" - 'HELL' very large, dark, and bold, in the bottom right corner stretches and squeezes, expelling 'him' out onto the screen, and 'him' then spirals off into the distance.

Dialogue and type action:

"NO. ... NO" - the first no is smaller and lower, in the bottom right corner. The second no is larger and higher, appearing in the top left of the screen.

Dialogue and type action:

"BUT I HAVE SEEN A SHIP WITH BLACK SAILS" - everything up to 'black sails' fades in one letter at a time, as if being typed. Then 'black sails' comes in twice as large and whips back and forth once before settling.

1. OH? AND NO
SHIP THATS NOT

Dialogue and type action:

"OH? AND NO SHIP THAT'S NOT CREWED BY THE DAMNED AND CAPTAINED BY A MAN SO EVIL THAT..." - the words slide in and bump up against one another, picking up speed going into the next frame.

2. HELL ITSELF
SPAT
HIM BACK OUT

Dialogue and type action:

"HELL ITSELF SPAT HIM BACK OUT COULD" - text slides in and run in to other words, 'SPAT' is large and 'pops' in faster than the rest (no sliding)

"Stamped on"
3. POSSIBLY
HAVE

Dialogue and type action:

"POSSIBLY HAVE BLACK SAILS AND COULDN'T..." - the 'POSSIBLY' pops in big and bold, then have comes in as other words have been. Then 'BLACK SAILS' stamps onto the screen with textured font.

4. POSSIBLY - BE
ANY OTHER SHIP

Dialogue and type action:

"POSSIBLY BE ANY OTHER SHIP THAN THE BLACK PEARL." - similar to previous frame where 'POSSIBLY' pops in large and bold, then the remaining text continues sliding in quickly and bumping into each other.

5. IS THAT WHAT YOU'RE SAYING?

Dialogue and type action:

"IS THAT WHAT YOU'RE SAYING?" - these words, rather than sliding on, simply pop onto the screen quickly and punctually.

6. NO.

Dialogue and type action:

"NO." - the screen zooms out to reveal the previous text in the shape of the ship. No fades in softly to the right as the text settles into its final position on the left side of the screen.
